

Too much baggage in GOP Congress

Despite the fine-sounding words, in supporting U.S. Sen. Mike DeWine, the Beacon Journal is essentially acquiescing in the corruption, scandal, deceit, incompetence and lack of accountability of the Bush administration.

DeWine has been a rubber stamp for all of it, so if we want a change, we have to vote Democratic.

On the positive side, U.S. Rep. Sherrod Brown is a good man who represents the interests of the vast majority of Americans. If the Democrats do get in and later turn their backs on us, then we should throw them out, too.

William E. McMahon

Akron